FINANCE.

Cl. 105.—Paymasters' Correspondence.

In the case of all regiments, corps or establishments, the paymaster's letters to the War Office will in every case be forwarded through the officer commanding, who will attach his signature, and add any minute he may think necessary, signifying his assent or otherwise to what the paymaster states or proposes.

Article 118 of the explanatory directions appended to the Royal Warrant of 1848 is hereby cancelled.

Cl. 106.—Treatment of Pensioners in Military Hospitals.

Pensioners having recently been admitted into military hospitals for treatment and subsistence without the sanction of the Secretary of State for War, the following Regulations are notified for the guidance of officers commanding and others:

1. Pensioners, when called out for training or in aid of civil power, are not entitled to treatment in military hospitals, unless they are taken ill on duty, in which case the ordinary hospital stoppage accounts will be rendered by the purveyor to the Staff Officer of Pensioners, who will report to the War Office for instructions as to what proportion of the stoppage is to be paid by the pensioner, and what by the public; stating the nature of the disease or injury for which the pensioner was under treatment, and the circumstances under which he became affected by it, in order that the proportion of expense to be borne as contingent charges in the pay list of the enrolled pensioners may be decided.

2. Pensioners employed as clerks, or in any other capacity in the civil or other departments of the Army, and occupying quarters in barracks by War Office authority, when attacked by any contagious or infectious disease which renders their removal into hospital necessary on sanitary grounds, will be charged stoppages at the rate of 1*s.* a-day in aid of the expense incurred for their subsistence while under treatment.

3. When pensioners, not called out for training or in aid of the civil power, nor entitled to occupy public quarters, are sent into hospital without the sanction of the Secretary of State for War, the officers by whose orders they are admitted will be held liable to a charge of 2*s.* for each day the patient is dieted by the public.

4. Soldiers discharged, with or without pension, and unable through illness to proceed to their homes, may be temporarily treated and subsisted in hospital until they are able to be sent to their destination; but all such cases will be reported by the officer commanding to the War Office.

Cl. 107.—Compensation in lieu of Clothing.

1. The Secretary of State for War has decided, with reference to the first portion of paragraph 67 of the Revised Royal Clothing Warrant, 1865, directing that compensation in lieu of clothing shall be paid up to the end of the month preceding the men's departure from the service companies or depôt, that in future the men shall only be settled with in respect to clothing to the 31*st March preceding.*

2. This clause is applicable to corps serving in India.

Cl. 108.—Property Hired by the War Department.

The Secretary of State for War has decided that any payment made prior to occupation to a lessor for work done for the War Department to render premises fit for the purpose for which they are hired, and any payment made for dilapidations when they are surrendered, shall be charged to vote 4.

Any payment made for work done while the premises are in the occupation of the War Department will be charged to vote 14.

Cl. 109.—Disinfectants.

It is hereby notified that whenever a disinfectant is necessary, under the provisions of Clause 92 of Army Circular of 1867, carbolic acid powder is to be used if practicable. It must be carefully applied, and in sufficient quantity to arrest decomposition.

The cheapest that can be obtained from a respectable vendor is to be used.

Cl. 110.—Manufacturing Departments.

1. When cases of small pox or scarlet fever break out in the domiciles of persons employed on daily or weekly wages in any of the manufacturing departments, such persons will instantly, under pain of dismissal, report the circumstance to the head of the department.

2. The head of the department will thereupon direct the medical officer to enquire into the case, and to certify whether in his opinion the attendance at work of the person concerned would be dangerous to others employed in the same department, in which case such person will not be permitted to come to work.

3. Medical officers will however be very careful not to keep persons from their work for a longer period than may be absolutely necessary.

4. While so absent the persons will receive pay at half the ordinary rate.

BARRACKS.

Cl. 111.—Marching-out Returns.

1. In order to facilitate the preparation of the marching-out returns, and to enable the officer appointed to give over the barracks in accordance with paragraph 951, Queen's Regulations for the Army, to rejoin his regiment with the least possible delay, the following method of preparing the marching-out returns will in future be adopted.

2. The barrackmaster will at once cause two copies of the returns to be made out, which will be signed by himself and the officer, one copy being retained by the barrackmaster, and the other by the officer, who can then immediately proceed to join his regiment.

3. Two other copies will then be made out and despatched by post, marked "certified copies," and when signed by the officer, after he has compared them with the copy in his possession, will be returned by him to the barrackmaster, who will transmit one copy to the War Office, as at present, and hand over the other copy to the succeeding regiment that the latter may satisfy itself that the whole of the damages have been repaired. The copy retained by the outgoing regiment should be also countersigned by the officer commanding—not in attestation of the correctness of the charges, for which the officer left to give over the barracks is responsible—but as authority for the paymaster to charge the sums paid as barrack damages in his accounts.

4. In the event of no officer being left behind to give over the barracks, the barrackmaster will immediately verify the charges by declaration and forward the same to the War Office.

In the event of the officer left behind to give over the barracks being obliged, after signing the first two copies of the marching-out return, to embark for home or foreign service without being able, from want of time for their preparation, to sign the remaining copies, the barrackmaster will then forward one certified copy to the War Office, and hand over another to the relieving regiment.

STORES.

Cl. 112.—Nomenclature of Stores.

The attention of military store officers is directed to clause 55, Army Circulars 1868.

The alphabetical arrangement of the vocabularies as well as the nomenclature is to be strictly observed in all ledgers and vouchers, so that uniformity of practice may exist.

ERRATUM.

The Secretary of State for War having decided that in future the Cavalry, Royal Artillery and Military Train shall be supplied with the articles specified in the Appendix (A.) from the out-stations instead of from the Tower and Woolwich as heretofore, officers commanding regiments, batteries and troops should include the articles in their annual estimates to local military store officers.

G.O. 86.—Arms.

I. The swords, scabbards, belts, &c., in possession of army schoolmasters, are in future to be included in the regimental returns of arms and accoutrements furnished annually to the Adjutant General.

II. The dates on which the swords, &c., now in possession, were originally issued should be ascertained, in order that their period of duration may be determined.

GEN. ORDERS—continued.

G.O. 87.—Forms.

All proceedings of boards, committees or courts of enquiry, for which special printed forms do not already exist, are in future to be written on W. O. Form 263, which has been recently introduced for general use.

Supplies of the new form can be obtained on application to the War Office in the usual manner.

G.O. 88.—National Rifle Association Army Prizes.

The following list (Appendix B.) of the winners of prizes granted by the National Rifle Association, to be competed for by soldiers, is published with reference to the General Order, No. 57, of 20th June last.

G.O. 89.—Magic Lantern Slides for Schoolmasters' Lectures.

Arrangements having been made to provide a regular supply of diagrams and magic lantern slides, to illustrate the lectures which may be given during the ensuing winter to the troops at the several stations in the United Kingdom named in the annexed list marked A, the Field Marshal Commanding in Chief desires attention to the following rules, which have been drawn up for regulating this service,—and he looks for the co-operation of commanding officers towards carrying out the same, by ensuring the circulation of the slides and diagrams with that regularity upon which the success of the measure will mainly depend, and by the maintenance of order and decorum during the delivery of the lectures.

General officers commanding at the several foreign stations specified in the list B (Appendix C) will be pleased to give effect to these regulations within their respective commands, as far as local circumstances will permit, reporting from time to time their arrangements to this department for the Field Marshal Commanding in Chief's information, and with a view to the same being communicated to the Council of Military Education.

1. The boxes and diagrams, the present stations of which are shown in the annexed list A (Appendix C), should be placed in charge of the senior schoolmaster at the station, or of some other schoolmaster detailed for that duty by the officer commanding.

2. No box or set of diagrams is to be kept at any station longer than three weeks, at the end of which it is to be forwarded to the station next in order, as shown by list A.

3. As soon as a box has been forwarded, the form No. 1*, properly filled up, is to be sent to the address given at the bottom of the form.

4. The form No. 2*, is to be filled up and sent to the same address, on the receipt of a box of slides.

The name of the station, the date, and the full title of the box should be written on each form†.

5. When any of the slides are broken or injured, full particulars respecting the damage done are to be written on the margin of form 2.

6. The slides must be carefully placed in each box, in the order given in the detailed lists, and the spaces between the slides and the sides of the box filled up with the wool which has been supplied for this purpose. The slides must be properly packed, to prevent breakage in the transit. The chromatrope, in packing, should be placed at the back of the box.

7. Each box is to be carefully locked, wrapped up in strong paper, and addressed to the officer commanding at the station to which it is to be sent.

Magic Lantern Slides,
Per Rail, &c.

8. The diagrams must be rolled carefully on the piece of wood that is forwarded with each set, packed in strong brown paper, and addressed as stated in No. 7. The word Diagrams is to be written instead of Magic Lantern Slides.

9. As some of the keys of the circulating boxes have been lost, a pass-key will in future be sent to each of the camps, garrisons, &c., to which the boxes of slides are transmitted. This pass-key is to be given over to the schoolmaster having charge of the magic lanterns, and he will, on removal to another station, deliver it over with the magic lanterns, boxes and diagrams he may have in his possession to such schoolmaster as may be detailed under the orders of the general or other officer in command for that duty.

10. The circulation of the boxes and diagrams is to commence on the 16th of October, 1868, and to cease in March, 1869.

11. The boxes and diagrams should circulate not later than the periods specified in the Appendix to General Order, No. A.

The boxes and diagrams are to remain at the stations to which they may be sent in March, in charge of the schoolmaster, until again required for circulation.

12. The text books which lecturers may require for the preparation of their lectures cannot be supplied at the public expense. They should be provided by the Garrison Library Committees out of the library funds. As the boxes are transmitted to the stations in succession, each schoolmaster will find, on referring to list A, the subject on which he will have to lecture when the next set of diagrams or box of slides shall reach the station to which he is attached.

13. Application should be made as early as possible,* in conformity with War Office Circular No. 601, for such of the following articles as may be required, viz.:—Best Sperm Oil.—Wicks.—Tin Oil Filler.—Chimney Glasses.—Chamois Leather.—Camphor.†—Black Oxide of Manganese, Chlorate of Potash (or Oxygen mixture) ‡—Lime Ball Cylinders.—Metal Rods for Sheet.—Pair of Scissors.—Brown Paper for Packing.—Twine for Packing.—Sheet or Screen, when required.

And also for authority for the following payments:—

(1.) Carriage of the boxes of circulating magic lantern slides.

(2.) Postage of letters on the subject of their circulation.

(3.) Washing of the cloth screen or sheet.

14. All communications respecting the magic lanterns, lectures, &c., are to be addressed to—

The Secretary,
Council of Military Education,
13, Great George Street,
London, S.W.

(Magic Lanterns.)

15. Lecturers should bear in mind, that:

(1.) As a general rule, it is not advisable that the lecture should exceed an hour in delivery.

(2.) The lecture should be made as interesting as possible; statistical and dry details ought to be omitted, unless the lecturer considers it absolutely necessary that such should be mentioned, for the sake of illustration or comparison.

(3.) All explanations should be in clear and simple language; but, where technical and scientific terms are necessary, they should be explained and rendered as intelligible as possible, having reference to the class the lecturer is addressing.

(4.) No slide should be allowed to remain in the lantern longer than ten minutes.

(5.) Before using the lantern the lenses should be taken out and wiped: the lamp glass should be cleaned, and the silver reflector polished. The pictures will be dim and indistinct if the lenses, &c. are not perfectly clean.

(6.) The lime ball cylinders should be gently warmed before they are used.

16. An account of the lectures delivered during the season, both at home and abroad, is to be transmitted in April, on the form provided for this purpose.

G.O. 90.—Army Reserve.

I. The Field Marshal Commanding-in-Chief desires that the following documents, which have been drawn up for the purpose of carrying into effect the provisions of the Act of Parliament 30 & 31 Vict. c. 110, be published in the General Orders of the Army, viz.:—

1. War Office Regulations for the discipline and payment of the Army Reserve, dated 9th May and 1st August last.

2. War Office placards to be placed in the barrack rooms.

* In duplicate, on Form, No. 4.

† The camphor can be dissolved in oil gently warmed over a stove, &c.

‡ For one lecture, one pound of Oxygen mixture; or three quarters of a pound of Chlorate of Potash and two ounces of Manganese.

GEN. ORDERS—continued.

II. Towards the end of every quarter, commanding officers of regiments and depôt battalions will ascertain from those men whose first period of service will expire during the ensuing three months, and who have not re-engaged, or who do not propose to do so, whether they are willing to join the Army Reserve, either in the 1st or 2nd class; and on the

1st January,	1st July, and

in each year, they will furnish lists to the Adjutant-General of such men (separately for each class), in triplicate, according to the annexed return A (W. O. Form No. 519), together with an additional return B (W. O. Form No. 520), and hold the men in readiness to proceed to their intended place of residence, on receipt of routes from the Quarter Master General;—the "memorandum of instructions," W. O Form 134A, being given to each man before he leaves the regiment. The discharge documents are to be transmitted to the Adjutant-General for confirmation in the usual manner as soon as the men's limited service is complete.

III. The same course is to be pursued whenever a soldier is permitted to purchase his discharge, provided he is in all respects fit, as to character, health, &c., for the particular class in which he may elect to serve.

IV. Special care must be taken in filling up the medical certificates attached to the returns, that the men's fitness for foreign or home service is correctly stated in each case.

V. When a regiment returns from foreign service, and when its numbers exceed those allowed on the home establishment, a portion of the men described in article C (class 1) of the accompanying regulations may be granted a furlough for two months, and at the expiration of six weeks thereof, commanding officers will take care to ascertain from them whether they are willing to return to their regiments or desire to join the Army Reserve. In the latter case, the several returns prescribed in paragraph 2 are to be at once rendered to the Adjutant-General, in order to the volunteers being enrolled in the reserve force by the staff officer of pensioners of the district in which they are to reside; and they are to be borne as supernumeraries to the strength of their regiments until the termination of their engagement. The discharge documents, filled in to the date of leaving the regiment, are then to be forwarded to and retained by the staff officers of pensioners, who will transmit the same for confirmation to the Adjutant-General a fortnight before the expiration of the men's engagement, taking care to complete the third page of the attestations and the statement on the second page of the proceedings of the board, with the service rendered in the reserve, to the date of termination of limited engagement. In order to prevent men from being put to inconvenience by not having their parchment certificates of discharge in their possession, they are to be furnished on leaving their regiments for enrolment in the reserve, with "protecting certificates" (W. O. Form No. 521), which are to be given up to the staff officer of pensioners on receipt from him of the parchment certificate.

VI. Men thus permitted to quit their regiments and to enrol in the Army Reserve before the termination of their line engagement, are to be medically examined before proceeding on furlough,—they will not receive pay, except when called out for training or other military duty,—nor will they be entitled to any annual bounty until re-engaged for the Army Reserve, on the termination of their Army service. Soldiers who volunteer under these orders to make up their time in the Army Reserve, will have the option of returning to and completing their period for pension in the Army, should they desire it, and continue in all respects fit for active service.

VII. The above system may be continued for one year after a regiment returns from abroad; i. e. as it becomes in excess of the home establishment by recruits joining, soldiers who have completed two-thirds of their limited service will be eligible for transfer to the Army Reserve, in accordance with clause V.

VIII. It must be distinctly understood that men whose character would appear in their discharge documents as "Bad," are not eligible for the Army Reserve; and special care must be taken in accounting in the monthly and annual returns for men who join that force that they are described under the proper heads. For this purpose the columns "Discharged" and "Transferred" must be subdivided, so that each regiment may be able to show the number of men who leave it for enrolment in the Army Reserve, and the particular class which they may have joined. This will be attended to in the future reprints; until then the requisite alterations must be made in the returns in manuscript, as the necessity arises.

IX. The Secretary of State for War has approved of the amount of travelling expenses, to which they would have been entitled to take them to their homes if altogether discharged from the service, being granted to men joining the Army Reserve under clause V., and of a similar boon being extended to men who, on purchasing their discharge, shall join the Reserve under clause III., on its being ascertained from the staff officers of pensioners of the districts to which such men have proceeded, that they have actually enrolled in the said force.

G.O. 91.—Re-engagement of Armourers.

The G. O. 44, of 1868, is cancelled. Men of the corps of armourers may be re-engaged at the regiments or stations where serving without previous application, provided they are in all respects qualified and approved by competent military authority; but the re-engagements must in all cases be for the corps of armourers in which they must have completed two-thirds of their limited service, exclusive of previous service in any other corps.

A copy of the re-engagement schedule to be forwarded direct to the Adjutant-General for transmission to the War Office.

G.O. 92.—Stores.

Regimental demands for stores have been received which have not been prepared in the form prescribed by the regulations. The attention of commanding officers of Royal Artillery and other corps is therefore called to Clause 55 of Army Circulars, 1868, and to the necessity of all requisitions for stores, as regards the nomenclature, the price of such description of store, and the total value of the stores demanded, being prepared in strict accordance with the instructions therein contained.

G.O. 93.—Soldiers' Records.

The Mutiny Act of 1868 (section 103), and the schedules annexed thereto, having rendered necessary an alteration in the method of recording the re-engagement of soldiers, as laid down in paragraph 1501 of the Queen's Regulations, 1868, the following will be substituted for the paragraph referred to, viz.:—

1501.—Commanding officers of regiments and depôts, in carrying out the provisions of the Acts of Parliament, for limiting the time of service in the Army [The Army Service Act, 1847, the Army Enlistment Act, 1867, and the Mutiny Act for the current year], are to cause the records of the services of soldiers who renew their engagement to be closed up to and inclusive of the day preceding that on which such re-engagement takes place. The record is then in like manner to be re-commenced as follows:—

"Re-engaged for the —— Regt., at ——," for such term as shall complete a total service of twenty-one years, and so continued in the usual mode until the termination of the re-engagement.
